America is built on the backs of entrepreneurs. If successful entrepreneurs band together to work collectively, they will make a powerful investment in the future of America.

“He who gives while he lives also knows where it goes.”
~ Percy Ross (and a favorite of Ed Lowe)
You are invited to participate in a new mentoring program offered by the foundation called

“The American Academy of Entrepreneurs”

This exclusive academy is designed to attract the interest and involvement of successful entrepreneurs, outstanding in their respective fields, who share with the Edward Lowe Foundation, the desire to strengthen the free-enterprise economy by nurturing new entrepreneurs.

There are three phases to this program: the retreat, monthly mentoring calls and lessons learned.

It takes the participation of battle-tested entrepreneurs, like yourself, to become the role models for the next generation. Your benefits include:

- Opportunity to give back
- Grow your network and business
- Learn from other panel leaders
- Building your legacy

Cost: Your valuable time.
